C. S. Hebert, of New Orleans, who figured in the committee's decision yesterday denying a rehearing in the challenge of Mr. Kuntz's seat, appeared for the contestants. He was confronted with a signed agreement made in 1918 in which he and his associates agreed not to file a contest. associates agreed not to the a contest.

Committee members said the case had been investigated thoroughly last year and declared the new contest violated the 1918 agreement.

Further time to check evidence in the Georgia case was given to the sub-committee headed by Charles B. Warren of Michigan, who said a comparison of duplicate state convention rolls would take much omre time. H. L. Remmel, of Arkansas, proposed that both Georgia delegates be seated with a half vote each, but this was voted down.
